

An aerial photograph of a city, likely Los Angeles, with a semi-transparent blue overlay. The text is overlaid on this image.

How can you promote Housing Justice in your day-to-day work?

- Start gatherings with land acknowledgements
- Create safe work environments for difficult discussions
- Explicitly discuss racial disparities
- Measure racial disparities in your agency
- Ensure that people with lived experience are given decision making power
- Ensure people with lived experience are in positions of leadership
- Pay living wages
- Affirmatively further fair housing
- Create opportunities for transformative community engagement
- Support reparations
- Ensure that your advocacy efforts including advocating for legal entitlements and protections

@HsngJusticeLA
#HousingJusticeLASummit